

Articulate and Respectfully Defend the Pro-Life Position

Learn the facts.
Learn to answer the tough questions.
Be confident, even in a hostile setting.

Saturday, Oct. 29, 2011 • 1:00 pm - 5:30 pm

Keezell Hall, Room 105
James Madison University
Harrisonburg, Virginia

Cost: An offering will be received

RSVP: Nicole@ProLifeOnCampus.com

WHO SHOULD COME?

Pro-Life Students of All Ages
Pro-Life Advocates • Mission Minded
Christians • Church Youth Groups

Featured Speaker

C. Fletcher Armstrong, PhD would love to show you how to defend the pro-life position. He is a regular speaker at national pro-life conferences and seminars, and he has briefed Congressmen and their staff on pro-life strategy. He is the Southeast Director of the Center for Bio-Ethical Reform (CBR) and is the purveyor of FletcherArmstrongBlog.com.

Facilitator

Nicole W. Cooley is the author of the book Into the Light: Rape, Abortion, and the Truth that Set Me Free. She tells her story so that others can find healing in Christ or, better yet, choose life for their own children. As CBR's Project Director for Virginia, she promotes effective pro-life activism at the state's largest and most influential universities.

"We learned the facts about abortion, the reasoning behind the arguments (both for and against), and the most effective strategies for changing hearts and saving lives on our campus."

*- Peter Ascik, President, U of Georgia
Students for Life*

www.ProLifeOnCampus.com